Commissioner for Patents

During preparation of the application for printing as a patent, an additional IDS dated December 23, 2002 was found in the application papers. The IDS has now been acknowledged by the examiner and the application will be forwarded to the printer. A copy is included herewith. None of the references thereon have been considered by the examiner since the IDS was filed as part of an improper RCE submission.

Should any further questions arise, the examiner's new telephone number is (571) 272-4185.
